

Links Related to Garífuna:

National Garifuna Council of Belize

The NCG is a non-governmental organisation representing the indigenous Garifuna people of Belize. Their mission is to preserve, strengthen and develop our culture as well as promote economic development of the Garifuna people.

Garifuna.org

This page looks at current events, history and culture of the Garífuna people of Belize, Guatemala and Honduras

Garifuna.com

This site showcases Garifuna communities, history, culture, geography, and social information.

GarifunaWorld.com

Looks at the survival of Garifuna.

Garifuna Language Resources

Gives helpful links to language and culture resources

The Garifuna @ NationalGeographic.com

Focuses on two peoples whose union created the Garífuna culture—Caribbean fishing and farming traditions with a mixture of South American and African music, dance, and spirituality.

Garífuna Settlement Day

19 November is Garífuna Day in Belize.

Garífuna Music

Visit Smithsonian Folkways for Garífuna Music.

Garífuna Music and Culture

This site focuses on what's new on the Garifuna music scene. The site was established by Ifasina Efunyemi, a Belizean Mass Communications student at UWI, Mona. She is also a niece of Andy Palacio.

Andy Palacio

Andy Palacio is Belize's most popular musician and performing artist, but a cultural activist with a deep commitment to preserving the values of his Garifuna culture.

Audio Garífuna New Testament

Listen to an audio sample of the Garífuna New Testament from Hosanna/Faith Comes By Hearing, purchase the New Testament or the Jesus Film. Click here for more information.